Music

BREVARD COLLEGE

step in. stand out.

Brevard College has a long and esteemed reputation for outstanding musical instruction and opportunities. Located in the heart of the southern Blue Ridge Mountains, Brevard College affords the opportunity to work with an excellent faculty in a challenging, yet supportive academic community. Whatever your goal after receiving your degree, Brevard College provides an exciting place to hone academic and musical skills.

Music major at Brevard College

The Music Department is fully accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music. As a Music major, you may select a course of study in one of the following areas:

- Bachelor of Arts in Music Education with Licensure (K-12)
- Bachelor of Music in vocal/instrumental performance
- Bachelor of Arts in music

What makes the BC Music Program unique?

Students have the opportunity to:

- perform in a state-of-the-art performance hall
- study with top-notch faculty
- perform with professional ensembles including the Asheville Symphony Orchestra and Chorus, Hendersonville Symphony, Brevard Philharmonic Orchestra and the Asheville Lyric Opera company
- intern at the Porter Center for Performing Arts on the Brevard College Campus

Performance Ensembles at Brevard

- Symphonic Winds
- Jazz Ensemble
- Jazz Combos
- Concert Choir
- Chamber Chorale
- Guitar Ensemble
- Opera Workshop/Musical Theatre
- Instrumental Chamber Ensembles
- Percussion Ensemble

For amazing graduate stories visit us at:

www.brevard.edu/graduates

Brevard College is fully accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music

Some of our recent graduates have:

- Worked at the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts
- Continued their education as Fulbright Scholars
- Taught in public and private schools
- Served as church music directors
- Attended Divinity School
- Attended graduate programs in music performance, music history, music composition and other music fields
- Become professional orchestral conductors
- Worked in arts management
- Worked as studio musicians or in recording studios

Scholarship and Audition Information

All prospective Music majors must audition to be admitted to the Music major and to be considered for music scholarships typically ranging from $500 - $3,500 per year. Audition dates, applications and requirements are available at www.brevard.edu/music. All students, regardless of major, may also qualify for academic scholarships through the Admissions Office from $5,500 per year to full tuition. Need-based financial aid is available for all qualified students filing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Brevard College's Porter Center for Performing Arts

Scott Concert Hall seats 720, and has superlative acoustics and unobstructed sightlines. The large stage can accommodate solos to full symphonies

The Morrison Playhouse is a 2,500 square foot black box theater, featuring a sprung floor, technical lighting and variable seating configuration for 150 guests.

Kirkpatrick-Coleman Pipe Organ, the Porter Center's visual centerpiece, was designed by Daniel Jaeckel and features three manual divisions, 69 ranks and 3,539 pipes.

Contact Information

Coordinator: Music Major
Dr. Laura Franklin
828.884.8112
laura.franklin@brevard.edu

Administrative Assistant
Mary Wellborn
828.884.8211
hessm@brevard.edu

Financial Aid
828.884.8245
www.brevard.edu/financialaid

Music Major Web site
www.brevard.edu/music

Visit the Brevard College Music Department Group on Facebook

Division of Fine Arts Includes

Major Programs:
- Art
- Music (B.A., or B.M. in Performance)
- Music Education
- Theatre Studies

Minor Programs:
- Art
- Art History
- Music
- Theatre